

2016 ARKANSAS TRAILS SYMPOSIUM

MARCH 18-20

AT CLARENDON, ARKANSAS
HOSTED BY THE
ARKANSAS TRAILS COUNCIL

FEATURED SPEAKERS

Porter Briggs

Board Member and Vice President of Friends of the Historic White River Bridge at Clarendon to present about the status of the scenic span as a possible bicycle-pedestrian bridge, their efforts to become an adventure tourism destination and the re-visioning of the Delta region

Sam Correro

Motocross rider and creator of the Trans-America Trail (TAT), a dirt road route across the country, which goes through Arkansas (including the town of Clarendon) to talk about the creation of the TAT

Lizzy East

Field Activities Coordinator for The Nature Conservancy, to present on the history of the Cache River channelization, the fight to stop it, and the effort to restore the river

Terry Eastin

Big River Strategic Initiative, LLC. Executive Director and Board Member of Mississippi River Trail, Inc. to present about the development of the Mississippi River Trail

John Ruskey

Founder of the Quapaw Canoe Company and author of "Rivergator: Paddler's Guide to the Lower Mississippi River," to speak about the Mississippi River as a water trail

Keith Weaver

Cache River National Wildlife Refuge Project Manager, to speak about the refuge

Free Camping in Clarendon by the White River - Friday and Saturday
Speakers & Awards - Saturday
Field Trips - Sunday
For more information contact Arkansas State Trails Coordinator
Mike Sprague 501-682-6946, michael.sprague@arkansas.gov